

Kent County, Maryland

Proclamation

KENT COUNTY PREPAREDNESS MONTH "TAKE CONTROL 1, 2, 3"

SEPTEMBER 2023

- WHEREAS, National Preparedness Month, has occurred annually in September since September 11, 2001, and is also recognized as Maryland Preparedness Month; and
- WHEREAS, "Take Control 1, 2, 3" serves as a reminder that we must take action to plan and prepare now, and throughout the year, for the types of emergencies that could affect us where we live, work, and visit; and
- WHEREAS, When individuals take responsibility for preparing their families and their communities, the chance of survival and returning to normalcy following a disaster is greatly increased; and
- WHEREAS, The Kent County Office of Emergency Services encourages all residents, visitors, and businesses to plan and prepare for all hazards before they happen. This month serves as a timely reminder that emergencies can happen anywhere and anytime, without advance notice. The time to prepare is before a disaster happens; and
- WHEREAS, All residents of Kent County, Maryland are urged to plan ahead for disasters by participating in neighborhood preparedness activities, registering their contact information in the CodeRED mass notification system, and visiting the County's preparedness campaign social media outlets.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND, do hereby support the Nation in proclaiming September 2023 as Kent County Preparedness Month, and call on all government agencies, private organizations, businesses, and the people of Kent County to develop their own emergency preparedness plan, and work together toward creating a stronger, more resilient community.
